Sir:

A Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment dated May 6, 2005 was received for the above-identified application. The Notice indicates that the labeling of claim 4 as "currently amended" was improper in the Amendment filed on March 29, 2005 because the changes thereto were not shown with underlining or strikethroughs. However, the only amendment to claim 4 was the indentation of the first "wherein" clause. It is clear that this indentation was properly shown by underlining in the Amendment. As a result, the issuance of the Notice is improper.

Attached hereto is a copy of the Amendment originally filed on March 29, 2005. Consideration of the Amendment is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Izumi TAKAGI
